Mr. W. K. Oldham, a former Madisonian, is being boosted for Governor of Arkansas in the event of Governor Robinson being appointed United States Senator.

Mr. Oldham is the brother of Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. John Doty, of this city.

Our fellow townsman, Mr. Jas. Walker, was injured last week while getting in his buggy. He gave a sneeze that was a "sneeze" and coming while he was down in a strained position, it snapped a rib in twain. Mr. Walker will be at the chicken show, rib or no rib.

A Young man named Coleman Day in the employ of Lee Congleton of this city, was thrown from a mule and instantly killed a few days ago. Mr. Congleton was sued for $40,000.00 damages for same but we understand he is fully protected by indemnity insurance. The accident happened in Lee county and the suit was filed in Lee county.

Leaped From Trestle.

At Beattyville last Saturday night a number of persons were caught on the railroad trestle between the depot and town, and to escape an approaching engine, Elijah Fields and wife and Cole Toler, a deaf and dumb boy, leaped a distance of 56 feet, landing in the mud and water. The man and boy sustained broken limbs but the woman was not seriously hurt.

DEATHS

Thomas B. Dixon, of Irvine, died Monday night. He will be buried at Waco, this county, today. He formerly lived at Waco.

Mrs. Lucy Bowman, mother of the Bowman Brothers, contractors, of this city, died at her residence at Red House. She was a most estimable woman, and loved by all her acquaintances and friends.

Mrs. H. C. Hargis died at her residence on North street in this city last Thursday night. She was the widow of the late Henry C. Hargis of this city. Before her marriage she was a Miss Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. Hargis had only one child, Mrs. Dr. Stewart, who died several years ago. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Sam Royce and Mrs. Nannie Benton, and one brother, Andy Hampton, of Clark county. Her funeral was preached at her late residence by Dr. G. W. Crutchfield, of the Methodist church, with which church she affiliated; thence her interment in the Richmond cemetery. Mrs. Hargis was a quiet, reserved woman, but of many noble traits of character, and to have fully appreciated her you must have known her well.

Mr. James Arbuckle died Tuesday night at his residence on the McBroom farm, this county. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Arbuckle, of Kirksville. He was 35 years old. A few years ago he married Miss Mary Collins of this city, who survives him.

Death is always a distressing incident to a family, and especially is it so, when one in the bloom of young manhood is taken. Mr. Arbuckle was a genial, companionable young gentleman of good business qualifications. He had a host of friends. His life was before him and he had much in store. That it has been so suddenly interrupted and terminated is lamented by all. Peace to his ashes and love and sympathy to the bereaved family.

Church Notes

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church met on Thursday with Mrs. J. R. Pates.

The ladies of the Baptist church will have a cooked food sale on each Saturday in February.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will have a sale of eatables on the Saturday before Easter.

"The World" in Chicago will be held May 3 to June 7. Both the Auditorium Theater and the Coliseum will be occupied, while 33,000 volunteer workers will take part in the Pageant and the Exposition.

Next Sunday the regular quarterly communion service will be held in the First Presbyterian church, at which time several persons who have been attending the Communicants' class will be received into full communion.

March 13th, 1913 is the hundredth anniversary of the birth of David Livingstone. The annual meeting of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, held in January, 1912, passed a resolution requesting each Mission Board to celebrate in a proper way this Centenary.—Missionary Tidings.

President Wilson's daughter, Miss Jennie Woodrow, presided at the afternoon session of the National Board of Young Woman's Christian Association. President Wilson and his family certainly are starting out the right way to win the affections of the great common people. They stand for something other than mere social features.

Two thousand laymen will be in attendance at the Laymen's Convention at Memphis, February 18-20. They come from all parts of the South, and noted speakers will address the convention on ways and means of extending God's Kingdom in the Home-land. This is the third annual convention of the kind held by the Presbyterians of the South, and it is expected to be the best that has yet been held. Several laymen from the local church will probably be in attendance.

Rev. Mr. Eldredge, formerly of Lexington Presbytery, will be installed pastor of Kirksville and Paint Lick Presbyterian churches the second Sabbath of February. The commission appointed for these services by the Presbytery of Transylvania is as follows: Dr. D. H. Scanlon will preach the sermon and propound the constitutional questions at Kirksville at the 11 a. m. service and Rev. Cary R. Blain, of Houstonville, will charge the pastor, and Prof. Charles G. Crooks, of Danville, will charge the congregation. At 2:30 p. m. at Paint Lick, Rev. Mr. Blain will preach the sermon and preside, Dr. Scanlon will charge the pastor and Prof. Crooks will charge the people.

Mr. Sullivan Doing Nicely.

Hon. J. A. Sullivan was taken ill at his office Monday morning, but continued at work until in the afternoon, when his friends prevailed on him to go to his room at the Glyndon. Dr. C. S. Holton was called and attended him. This morning he is resting more comfortably. Mr. Sullivan is a hard worker and of late has had many important matters on hand that have kept him closely confined, thus depriving him of needful out of door exercise and fresh air. With a few days rest and careful nursing, he will no doubt be greatly invigorated. His legion of admirers and friends in this and other counties hope for his very speedy recovery, and now tender to him their love and sympathy.

Don't forget to meet at the poultry show at McKee's Feb. 5, 6, 7 and 8.

The President has refused to allow the Bath Tub Trust prosecutions to be filed away. It contends that it has dissolved itself without the order of the court. But the President and the Attorney General think that the prosecutions should not end. Wonder if the Trust will get an "immunity bath."

A suit for back taxes has been filed in the Fayette Circuit Court against the Burley Tobacco Society for taxes for the years 1907-8-9-10 and 11. If it amounts to the amazing sum of over $250,000.00. It is true it is astounding, because it develops that the bloated bond holder is not the only tax dodger.

The Jackson Times is authority for the statement that the L. & N. R. R. Co., has let a contract for twenty-five engines for use on its new road from the coal fields by way of Irvine and Winchester to Cincinnati. A large amount of other equipment was ordered. This sounds good to us. All of it won't go by Winchester—if we get a hustle on ourselves.

Miss Helen Gould was married to Mr. Finley J. Shephard, of St. Louis, last Wednesday at her home in Tarrytown, N. Y. Only a few relatives and intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony. Thus does Mr. Shephard lose his identity. The name of Helen Gould belongs to the world and will be kept in its memory.

The reports of the Collectors of Internal Revenue show that the tobacco industry of the State has had a wonderful impetus given it and that it is stimulated beyond expectations. There was a decrease in only one branch of the industry to wit: That in small cigar manufacture. In round numbers the collections were over $5,000,000.00, an increase of nearly $800,000.00.

Artists' Recital.

The most brilliant Recital ever given in this city was held in the Normal Chapel on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, and was greeted by a large and cultured audience. The program from start to finish was of the highest order.

Mr. Falk, Violinist, played with an artistic conception that commanded the rapt attention of his hearers throughout the evening, and at the close of Concerto E minor—Mendelssohn, Albinetti—Wagner, Ave Maria—Schubert—Wielhemy, and Traumeri, he was wildly applauded.

Mr. Fischer is no less a master of his instrument and his interpretation of Chopin, Liszt and Schumann was faultless, showing the greatest musical appreciation. Nor is Mr. Maynier, accompanist, less deserving of special mention, his playing being characterized by deep feeling and understanding of his theme, while the delicacy and beauty of his touch was marvelous. To have heard three artists is a rare privilege, and we trust they will again honor our city.
